Re: Rosemont Copper Company

Dear Mr. Rabago:

The Corporations Division of the Arizona Corporation Commission received your complaint concerning Rosemont Copper Company on April 2, 2012. We have investigated your allegations, and after due consideration of the complaint, the response to our interrogatories, and the pertinent statutes, we have determined that the original and subsequent certificates of disclosure for Rosemont Copper Company are in compliance with applicable statutory provisions.

The Commission's interrogatories and responses thereto are confidential by statute, as follows:

10-1634. Information disclosed by interrogatories

Interrogatories propounded by the commission and the answers to the interrogatories shall not be open to public inspection and the commission shall not disclose any facts or information obtained from the interrogatories and answers except if its official duty requires the facts or information to be made public or if the interrogatories or the answers are required for evidence in any criminal proceeding or in any other action by this state.

A.R.S. § 10-1634.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Patricia L. Barfield
Director, Corporations Division
